DEAR GARY L WOODROFFE:

REVIEW AND ADJUSTMENT NOTICE

The Department has reviewed your child support order with LIZABETH J. LOTSEY to determine if there should be a change to the support amount or medical support award. Based on the available financial information for both parents, the outcome of the review indicates an downward modification is warranted. If both parties agree to the new amount, you may consent to the new amount by signing an agreement. If you wish to sign an agreement, call the number below. If both parties do not agree to the new amount:

- . For judicially established orders, you will receive a Notice of Hearing. The court will determine whether the support amount will be changed.
- . For administratively established orders, the Department will initiate modification proceedings and will determine whether the amount of the support will be changed.

Additional information is available through the Customer Service Unit at 1-800-622-5437 or visit our website at <http://myflorida.com/dor/childsupport/modification>.
